To the Honorable County Commissioners of Hancock County.

The undersigned, being responsible persons, respectfully pray that your Honors will make the following alterations in the way laid out by your Honors in the Town of Eden around Duck Brook Hill and Long Hill by return dated January 29, 1880, which said way began at a stake near the first bend of the travelled road north of Duck Brook Bridge and passed round the said Hills and into the travelled road again near the house of Angelica T. Hamer.

1st. To change the southern end of said way more westerly, so as to leave said present travelled road at a point three and three fourths rods west of the former point and running near said Hills for about 115 rods and then into the way as now located at a fir tree.

2nd. To change the north end of said way so as to diverge therefrom at a stake about three and one fourth rods south of south line of Cornelia Prince, thence more westerly and entering the present travelled road at the foot of Long Hill about one and one half rods south of Cornelia Prince's North line. And as in duty bound will ever pray, Daniel W. Brewer and others
